

BON MARCHE.

Fashionable Five Dollar Hats.

Fashion has set its stamp of approval on these Hats in a final unalterable way. They are being bought by some of the most fashionable folks in Washington. You can leave the consideration of price out of the question when you are buying these Hats and buy them simply on their merit—in comparison with anything you will see anywhere. Special displays of $5.00 Hats next week.

The last week before Easter brings its usual Easter Millinery rush—not a doubt of it. We are prepared for it. But would like to have any orders you may want to place as early as possible.

Only Two Favorites Won at Benning Yesterday.

Interesting News and Gossip From the Base Ball World.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES

The big crowd at the Benning track yesterday saw favorites win but two of the six races, two being won by outsiders, while a second and a third choice also secured brackets. The most interesting race of the day was the second two-year-olds, for which the Morris Hanover-Medusa colt, Serpent, was made a 3 to 5 favorite. Serpent is one of the grandest lookers seen here for a long time, but when it came to racing the Goughnere stable's Atheling-Gallina filly, Ganessa, made the colt and others in the field look anything but handsome, winning with ease. Serpent second and Tea Varra, the property of Mr. G. C.
Johnson, a local man, third. The winner was at 10 and 12 to 1.

A local man, Superintendent James Lee of the track, placed the first race to his credit, his horse, Lexington Pirate, the 5 to 2 second choice, easily beating Robert Waddell, the even-money favorite, Robert Metcalfe, third. But three, Animosity, Draughtman and Elmo, who started in the third race, and they finished in that order, the winner being a 9 to 10 favorite, and giving Robert Waddell, the 5 to 1 favorite, a hard race to win. The favorite captured the fifth, the 9 to 1 favorite, Tamar, being second and Ginkli third. Matt Simpson, an outsider, at 12 to 1, took the sixth, Kirkwood second and Cherished third.

Summary.

First race, five and a half furlongs—Lexington Pirate, 115 (Landry), 13 to 5, won; Robert Waddell, 163 (Seaton), 4 to 5, and out, second; Robert Metcalfe, 114 (Miller), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:10 2-5. Alard, River
Princess, Tony Liczali, Ruth Park, Diva, Zenaida, Sweetpeas also ran.

Second race, maidens, two-year-olds, half mile—Ganessa, 107 (Landry), 12 to 1, won; Serpent, 107 (T. Walsh), 3 to 5, and out, second; Tea Varra, 107 (Metcalfe), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:10 4-5. Prince, Albert Water, Ashbrook, The Hartford, also ran.

Third race, selling, seven furlongs—Animosity, 108 (Wilkinson), 9 to 20, won; Draughtman, 107 (Burton), 2 to 1, second;
Elmo, 110 (Landry), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:30 4-5. Three entries.

Fourth race, five and a half furlongs—Imperialist, 115 (T. Hunter), 3 to 1, won; Tamar, 118 (Vandusen), 9 to 5, and 4 to 1, second; Ginkli, 101 (Brennan), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:32 4-5. Bean, The Tramp, Far-sight, Virginia Wilcox, Futural, Street Boy, Princess Aurora also ran.

Sixth race, selling, one mile and forty yards—Matt Simpson, 101 (Brennan), 12 to 1, won; Kirkwood, 110 (Landry), 8 to 1, second; Cherished, 109 (Pittsford), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:10 4-5. Island Prince, The most, Cherry Wild, Lillian Hoffman, X Ray also ran.

DR. HARBAN'S GOOD GOLF.

He Defeats Wellington and Watson
in Florida Championship.

Considerable interest was manifested at St. Augustine, Fla., yesterday in the second round and semi-finals for the Florida golf championship. The match which attracted the greatest attention was the contest between A. J. Wellington and Dr. L.
Harban of this city. The latter won by 2 up.

The summary of the day's play is as follows: All Florida championship, second round—Paul Waterman, Englewood Golf Club, won from T. C. Travell, Pittsburg, by default; C. B. Cory, Oakley Country Club, beat J. P. Cheney, Oxford, by 3 up and 2 to play; C. F. Watson, Epsom Golf Club, beat J. E. Rum-bough, Asheville, by 3 up and 2 to play; Dr. L. Harban, Columbia Golf Club, Washington, D. C., beat A. J. Wellington, Oakley Country Club, by 4 up and 2 to play.

Semi-finals—Cory beat Waterman by 3 up and 2 to play; Harban beat Watson by 4 up and 2 to play.
